

DIOCESE OF ALLENTOWN CYO CODES OF CONDUCT

The following CYO Codes of Conduct are intended to provide a framework of expectations for the behavior of all persons involved in any CYO event. CYO activities should be examples of the meaning of sportsmanship and Christian values. The guiding principle behind the enforcement of these codes of conduct is that the behavior of everyone involved in CYO should contribute to the positive environment for all of the youth participants.

All spectators, parents and family members, coaches and players/participants are expected to conduct themselves according to CYO standards of behavior. The codes of conduct serve as a behavioral guideline for all to follow, and appropriate consequences will follow violations of these codes of conduct. Key elements of the player, parent, coaches, and spectator codes of conduct are found on the following pages. Each coach, player/participant and parent/guardian will be presented with a CYO Athletics Code of Conduct at the beginning of their athletic/academic season. All parties are required to sign the document and return it to their CYO Director or coach, as appropriate, who will keep it on record for the athletic year.

Coaches Code of Conduct

With Almighty God as my witness, I hereby pledge to abide by the following Contract/Covenant:

- ❖ I will remember that I am a role model as a Christian and a good citizen for my participants, and as such I will always conduct myself in a mature manner, exercise good sportsmanship and always play by the rules in spirit and in word.
- ❖ I will foster an environment where all children will be given the ability to play and develop skills. I will do all in my power to discourage a “win at all costs” attitude.
- ❖ I will treat each participant as an individual, remembering the potential difference in emotional and physical development for the same age group.
- ❖ I will strive to remove all avoidable perils of competition by the application of intelligent and thoughtful cooperation with other coaches, officials, participants and spectators.
- ❖ I will lead by example in demonstrating fair play and sportsmanship to all my participants.
- ❖ I will do my best to organize practices that are fun and challenging for all my participants.
- ❖ I will ensure that I am knowledgeable in the rules of each activity I coach, and I will teach these rules to my participants.
- ❖ I will use those coaching techniques appropriate for each of the skills I teach.
- ❖ I will remember that I am a youth coach and that the activity is for the children and not adults.
- ❖ I promise to review and practice the necessary first aid principles needed to treat injuries to my participants.
- ❖ I will not question any official’s decision. I will direct all my concerns to the District Commissioner.
- ❖ I will refrain from using profane, obscene or vulgar language at all times.
- ❖ I will not foster nor tolerate my participants using unnecessary and unChristian tactics against opposing participants or own teammates. I will uphold the spirit of Christian sportsmanship. I will not look for loopholes in rules and ways to exploit such in word, deed or omission.
- ❖ I will reinforce and encourage a Christian environment and experience not only by my conduct, but by instructing parents and spectators about proper conduct when needed, and to support all official actions against disruptive and/or inappropriate behavior.
- ❖ I will use the activity for the welfare and character building of all participants, not for my own personal gain or satisfaction.
- ❖ I will not be guilty of personal verbal abuse or physical attack upon any participant, opposing coach, official or spectator for any real or imagined wrong decision or judgment.
- ❖ I will keep my personal opinions of any participant, coach, official or spectator out of public discussion during the activity. In an attempt to maintain and foster a Christian environment after said game. I will refrain from said comments immediately after the game. I understand that I am free to express my personal comments, opinions etc. at appropriate times and places.
- ❖ I will not be guilty of gestures indicating objection to decisions by officials or coaches such as throwing equipment or any other forceful action. Furthermore, I will not tolerate said behavior among my participants, assistant coaches and fans.
- ❖ I will respect the property of another team and the facility being used for the activity.

Violation of the Code may result in a minimum penalty of removal from a game or a maximum penalty of an indefinite suspension from all Diocesan CYO Programs. Suspension from any program within the Diocese will also result in simultaneous suspension from all Diocesan Youth Programs. A temporary suspension may be imposed upon a coach for egregious violations while the matter is justly investigated. Violations are subject to review OYYAFM.

Spectators' Code of Conduct

With Almighty God as my witness, I promise to adhere by the following Rules and Guidelines:

Before the Game:

1. Make a commitment to Honor the Game in action and language no matter what others may do.
2. Tell your child before each game that you are proud of him or her regardless of how well he or she plays.

During the Game:

1. Fill children's "Emotional Tank" through praise and positive recognition so they can play their best.
2. Don't give instructions to players during the game. Let the coach correct player mistakes.
3. Cheer good plays by both teams.
4. Mention good calls by the official to other parents/spectators.
5. If an official makes a "bad" call against your team? Honor the Game. BE SILENT.
6. If another parent on your team yells at an official? Gently remind him or her to Honor the Game.
7. Don't do anything in the heat of the moment that you will regret after the game. Ask yourself, "Will this embarrass my child or the team?"
8. Remember to have fun! Enjoy the game.

After the Game:

1. Thank the officials for doing a difficult job for little or no pay.
2. Thank the officials for their commitment and effort.
3. Don't give advice. Instead ask your child what he or she thought about the game and then LISTEN. Listening fills Emotional Tanks.
4. Tell your child again that you are proud of him or her, whether the team won or lost.

Failure to abide by these rules and guidelines will result in corrective action by the Diocese, which may include a warning, be asked to leave the facility or suspension from further games.
